

Fayette County Brothers Meet in Battle in Africa

AMAZING STORY
TOLD BY SAILOR
HOME ON LEAVE

Both Took Part in Landing
Operation — Ship Sunk
Under One of Them

Two brothers, who went from a Fayette County farm to warships of the United States Navy last spring just after school closed for the summer vacation, met unexpectedly during the first time in months during the battle at an unidentified sector in Africa when the big Allied convoy, bearing thousands of American and British fighting men launched their conquest of the Dark Continent and opened the second front last month.

Don Cox, who has just reached home for a 17-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cox of the Comet College Road about two miles south of Washington C. H., told the amazing story to his family and it was retold by one of his two sisters, Mrs. Dana Smith, South Main Street, with his other sister, Mrs. Ralph Lucas, who lives next door, checking on the details.

Don was to tell the Rotarians some of his experiences at their regular Tuesday noon luncheon meeting at the Country Club but insisted that no advance notice of that be given out by the program committee.

During his brief remarks to the Washington Rotary Club and guests Tuesday noon Don evoked a hearty laugh from his hearers when he said that the farmers around here should see how the natives in North Africa have to do their farming. They'd think they were having a picnic at home here, he said.

Just where 18-year-old Don met his 19-year-old brother Bill remained shrouded in naval secrecy because, he told his family, his officers had cautioned all of the sailors before they started home on leave to be careful of what they said to family and friends about their experiences.

It was three days after the landings had been made in Africa and while American soldiers, sailors and marines were still battling for their objectives that Don and Bill Cox met. The excitement of that unexpected meeting has all died down now and the story loses much of its luster in Don's matter-of-fact tone in the telling. The first thing brother Bill said to him,

LOVE IS RIDICULED

Quick 'Marriages' with Nazi
Soldiers Urged

AT THE GERMAN FRONTIER, Dec. 8.—(AP)—People in Germany used to marry "because they were in love" but "they didn't know any better in those days," the Nazi newspaper Das Schwarze Korps, organ of Hitler's SS Elite Guards, declares.

Answering indirectly the recent protests of German Catholic Bishops against the state of German morals under the Nazi regime, the newspaper sharply condemns young girls who hesitate over quick marriages to soldiers.

Scorning at "hopeless romanticism" and endorsing the goal of more babies for the Reich, Das Schwarze Korps expresses approval of "colorful flowers of flirtation blooming along soldiers' paths."

OHIO GETS IN FIGHT AGAINST AAA SEED

Governor Wants Right for State Inspections

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Ohio acted today to block distribution of assertedly inferior seeds by the Agricultural Adjustment administration for planting in the state.

Gov. John W. Bricker announced after a cabinet meeting yesterday that Atty. Gen. Thomas J. Herbert would be instructed to intervene in Florida's legal battle for authority to inspect surplus commodity seeds shipped into the state.

John T. Brown, Ohio agriculture director, said seed from surplus commodity stocks was inferior and should comply with state standards or be barred from distribution.

The federal government insists it has authority to make such distributions without state interference.

If you have a friend, or friends, in the armed services (and who hasn't), don't hesitate to write and write often. I've talked to a lot of the boys returning from camps and they say there is nothing like mail to keep up their spirits. I can imagine how especially that is true among the boys who are in our armed services in other lands.

For obvious reasons however, the war department is discouraging the writing of letters to soldiers with whom one is not personally acquainted and the formation of correspondence clubs, no matter how good the intentions of the club members may be.

Not so long ago Secretary of War Stimson pointed out the danger of this practice with this statement:

"Striking up acquaintanceship with soldiers through false goodwill organizations is one of the oldest techniques of espionage—hackneyed, but still in use. This will continue to be the case as long as genuine activities of this sort provide an innocent front for them. Masses of letters to soldiers from unknown correspondents, however well intended, place a heavy and unnecessary burden on our protective agencies."

Down in Greenfield they have an air-raid siren that stands up on its hind legs and screams so loud that it can be heard 10 miles from the town.

During the raid alarm Monday at 12:25, Robert Rodgers, residing south of Flake's Ford, some 8 miles from Greenfield, heard the Greenfield siren very distinctly.

That is quite different from the noise-makers enrolled in the air-raid alarm here, where part of the city can not hear the alarm of sirens, courthouse bell and whistles.

If the entire city is to be aroused by the noise, it is going to require a great deal more than has been brought into play up to the present time, and defense heads are now considering installation of additional facilities for giving a real, honest-to-goodness alarm.

SET OF FALSE TEETH
RESTORES MEMORY

Woman Amnesia Victim Is
'Lost' Over Week

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—(AP)—A set of false teeth restored the memory of a woman amnesia victim who appeared at the Philadelphia, YMCA November 27 and said "I've been walking, walking, walking and can't remember anything."

Yesterday a fellow hospital patient handed her a set of false teeth and asked her to clean them. The sight stimulated her memory and ultimately she was able to identify herself as "Mrs. Emma Biederbeck, of (6904) 58th Road, Maspeth, L. I.—a former dental technician.

She said her last memory was of "getting up on Thanksgiving Day," the day before she appeared here. The hospital notified relatives.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Ralph H. Stone, Ohio defense director, said today an unidentified airplane appeared over the Ashtabula shipyards at 10:45 last night, trained a spotlight on the workings there several minutes, and then sped eastward.

Stone said he had received a full report of the incident from Stanley Prentice, coordinator for civilian defense at Ashtabula.

The fifth service command was notified, Stone said. He added that certain war work is under contract to the shipyard.

Spain Sticks with Axis

Solidarity with Germany
And Italy Reaffirmed by Generalissimo Franco

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain reaffirmed in a Madrid broadcast today his solidarity with Germany and Italy in the struggle against what he called liberalism and "capitalist imperialism."

Addressing the Falange, Spain's state party, in his first public speech since the Allied occupation of French Africa territory, the German occupation of all France and partial Spanish mobilization, Franco asserted:

"One outcome of the last war was a barbarian Communist dictatorship established in Russia. First Mussolini, and later Hitler combatted it and established a new order.

"These new systems are not peculiarities of a race or nation. They represent a new faith and revolt against the old liberal world we knew in our youth."

"A new era is being initiated by the fighting in the east," Franco went on. "Spain has to work hard in order to prepare for the future. We must be prepared. Life must be secure."

"We face a hard life but a Spanish life. Our army and our youth will face all sacrifices. With fortitude we will gladly die for Spain."

"We have fought liberalism and all it represents."

The audience burst into the Falange song and cheers for Franco. Before his appearance in the palace of the Falange national council, Franco and members of his government watched a military display.

Implying that considerable disunity still existed in Spain, Franco told his audience "we must prevent old political groups from impeding the smooth working of our new political system; we must be on our guard because the enemy could destroy our news and flourishing industries and agriculture."

"We live in a new era," he asserted. "Spain has a place therein and will fulfill her part."

"Surrounded by war, Spain has been faithful to her traditions," Franco said in a speech to the third national council of the Falange.

Citing Premier Mussolini as an example of a leader who "has given Justice to the Italian people by the Fascist Revolution," Franco told his audience that "the Spanish Revolution has not yet ended."

"The republic brought misery and exploitation to this country," he asserted. "The presence

DRAFT AGE LOWERED

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Britain lowered her draft age to 18 years today and disclosed she was sending men between the ages of 37 and 41 directly into war factories in order to solve the manpower needs of her industrial and fighting armies.

The new minimum draft age was set by second reading of a bill to lower the military service liability age from 18½ to 18. Second reading in the House of Commons is tantamount to enactment. The final, third reading is a formality.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Wade Hammond, deputy regional director for the War Manpower Commission and Ohio chief of the U. S. Employment Service, asserted today it might become necessary to "invade" department stores and other retail establishments to obtain women essential to war work.

"This would be done," he said, "only in established distress areas where industry had exhausted other available sources of help. You must utilize the pairs of hands you have in a community to do essential war work."

Stores thus affected, he said, would have to obtain replacements among available women who, possibly because of their age, can not qualify for war jobs.

By CHARLES MOLONY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—War Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt, plunged into the task today of filling in the framework of a labor control structure likely to be unique in the nation's history.

As an opener, McNutt-scheduled a meeting with the Army and Navy chiefs of staff to work out some fundamental questions, but ahead lay reorganization of his expanded agency and perhaps a battle with the outgoing Congress in its dying days.

Utter Defeat of Japan
Pledged by U.S.-Britain

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Messages exchanged by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill pledging their two nations to the utter defeat of Japan were made public here today.

"Our country no less than the United States was the object of an infamous outrage a year ago," Churchill told the President in a message on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

"We look forward one and all to the day when our full strength can be joined to that of our United States, Dutch and Chinese Allies for the utter and final destruction of Japan's aggressive power."

The President replied that "partial retribution in kind has been meted out to Japan in the past several months but this is only the beginning."

"We will continue to strike with ever increasing force."

The Prime Minister also assured the peoples of Britain's Oriental territories that the years of defense "are behind us" and that Japan would be "stripped of her conquests, punished for her treachery and deprived of her power of evil."

"Retribution has always been sure," the Prime Minister said in a message noting the anniversary of Japan's attack on Hongkong and Malaya. "It is now growing near."

He urged the peoples of Britain's conquered possessions to "keep up your hearts, we shall not fail you."

"The years of defense, of stubborn, out-numbered, ill-equipped, almost miraculous defense are behind us," the message said. Everywhere the United Nations turn to attack."

Describing the Japanese attacks on Hongkong and Malaya as "one of the most wanton acts of aggression recorded in history," Churchill said, "Japan coldly, greedily and treacherously calculated that we should not have forces available to save our British territories and states in Malaya and Borneo for whose defense we were responsible."

"The storm which now lowers over Germany and Italy is spreading."

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Ohio's statewide mobilization of volunteer defense corps workers on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor was "generally successful," Ralph H. Stone, state defense director, reported today.

He expressed concern, however, over the showing made in most rural sections, and said several cities would have to "do something" about their air raid sirens to make them more audible.

Farm Bureau President

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, charged today that the rising cost of government was "a much greater threat to the people" than the cost of food.

Attacking the proposal to keep retail prices down through subsidy payments, he said it was hard for farmers to understand why consumers, when their income was at an all-time high, should

BATTLE FOR TUNIS RAGES

Drive Against Nazis

By JAMES M. LONG

(By The Associated Press)

The Allies have gained air and naval use of the prized French West African port of Dakar—and perhaps the section of the French fleet there as well—to offset the ships the Nazis salvaged undamaged or able to be repaired from the scuttling of the Toulon fleet.

Strongly fortified Dakar, on the direct sea and air route of supply to the North African waterfront, came into the Allied camp in an agreement with Governor General Pierre Boisson and Admiral Jean Darlan which was announced last night by Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Allied navies were given the right to use the port. Allied airplanes the right to use French West African airfields as stops en route. Interned Allied shipping and Allied seamen were released.

French Ships for Allies

And, it was announced, discussions were opened on the French warships there: presumably the damaged 35,000-ton battleship Richelieu, the 7,600-ton cruisers Gloire, Montcalm and Georges Leygues, the destroyers Le Fantasque, Le Malin and Le Terrible, nine submarines, and others.

In Washington Navy Secretary Frank Knox said the agreement already had "brought with it of course quite a number of French ships."

It was Knox who disclosed, from information obtained by aerial reconnaissance, that 20 of the 75 ships which were in Toulon harbor when the Nazis moved in were afloat.

He said 51 were sunk, damaged or unaccounted for, and four submarines escaped.

Three Battleships - - Maybe

The vessels damaged—but which MIGHT be reclaimed—included the battleships Dunkerque, Strasbourg and Provence.

Meanwhile, Lieut. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, commanding general of the U. S. Army air forces, declared that it was "touch and go" whether the Allies or the Axis had air superiority over the North African battlefield.

He predicted that an air battle may develop there which would determine aerial supremacy over the whole Mediterranean—possibly over all Europe.

U.S. WAR PRODUCTION
HALF WAY TO PEAK

In High Gear, It Will Exceed Any Axis Output

BOSTON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Despite WPB Chief Donald M. Nelson's concern over an apparent levelling-off trend in war production, Lieut. Gen. William S. Knudsen, the nation's production trouble-shooter, today forecast a production peak far greater than Germany's or Japan's as new plants come into play and thousands of war workers gain skill.

The former General Motors executive, now director of production for the War Department, said during a press conference that American output of war materials now had reached about 50 to 60 percent of "peak" but declared that "when we reach peak, we'll turn out twice as much as either Germany or Japan."

GRANGE LEADER WARNS AGAINST FOOD SHORTAGE

Farmers Must Have Gas for Their Equipment Says L. J. Taber

Fayette County Grange members attending the annual Ohio State Grange convention at Columbus Tuesday, heard L. J. Taber, past master of the National Grange, declare that:

"Unless we awaken to the fact that the farmers has to have gas for his truck and his tractor, children will cry for their daily bread."

Taber, in an address prepared for delivery at opening sessions of the 17th annual Ohio State Grange convention, outlined a three-point formula for keeping the nation's food basket filled. It was:

"1. In manpower and equipment, treat agriculture as a war industry and enable the farmers to reach maximum production."

"2. Farm prices must balance increased costs of labor and material."

"3. In marketing, storing and distributing methods of farm products, cooperation and collective bargaining must be recognized the same as in labor and industry."

"Many people in government, business and labor as well as some consumers need a rude awakening," Taber asserted.

"Food does not just happen. Behind every pound of grain, fruit, meat or vegetables is intelligent planning, scientific research, a year's program of work and ceaseless toil."

"When he sent the farmer's sons to the front, when they leave the plow for the airplane factory and high wages, a limit is placed on production. When there is no new machinery and no labor saving equipment to be purchased, a second limit is placed on the output of the farm."

"The farmers of America produced this year the greatest crop in all history. With two million less people to help and with a shortage of equipment, their record is outstanding."

"Agriculture will look forward and not backward in this emergency. We will not fail unless bureaucracy, red tape and injustice get in our way."

Glen Rhonemus is attending the convention as Fayette County's accredited delegate and Ralph Nisley as a member of the executive committee of the State Grange organization.

Other subordinate Grange officials are also attending the sessions.

HIGH SCHOOL JANITOR GOES INTO WAR WORK

The city schools today had received another jolt from the war. Clark Denney, who has been the janitor at the high school for nearly 10 years, resigned Monday to take a job at the city's biggest war production plant—the Aero-nautical Products, Inc., it was said at the office of Superintendent A. B. Murray.

The superintendent said school officials "are not complaining" inasmuch as the school's loss was the war effort's gain, but he added that they were caught un-awares and without any immediate replacements.

The other two janitors at the building are "doubling up" on the work, he said, until a suitable man can be employed.

A number of teachers already have been lost to the city school system because of the war. Some have gone into the armed forces and others have gone into war production factories.

FOLLOW-UP ORDER ON FIRE HAZARDS

Law Requiring Compliance Has Teeth in It

Property owners or tenants who fail to comply with findings made by firemen and building inspectors, may soon find the state law regulating compliance with the orders having some real teeth in them.

Sometime ago a number of such orders were issued in this city, and only part of those against whom the orders were issued have complied, so final notice is being served prior to taking legal action.

By complying with orders not only fire hazards but hazards to the public generally are abolished, it is pointed out.

DEFENSE TRIAL HERE GETS OUT 268 VOLUNTEERS

City Mobilization Called 75.7 Percent Effective After Check Is Made

The Civilian Defense Mobilization call Monday at 12:25 P. M., resulted in prompt reports being made by 75.7 percent of the entire personnel of the Fayette County Civilian Defense Council's volunteer workers in Washington C. H., according to a report compiled Tuesday by those in charge.

This civilian defense mobilization all over Ohio, on the anniversary of the Pearl Harbor attack, was called by the Ohio Civilian Defense Council and was carried out for the purpose of seeing how quickly volunteer workers would respond and be at their posts of duty, also how many would be on the job.

In Washington C. H., out of a total of 354 volunteer appointees including the control staff, air raid wardens, auxiliary police, auxiliary firemen, Boy Scouts and utility representatives, just 268 reported for duty within a general average of five minutes from the time of the alarm.

It is announced by the Civilian Defense Council that another action test probably will be arranged in the near future in preparation for the statewide blackout which is scheduled for sometime in January.

The Fayette County Civilian Defense Council is giving serious thought to augmenting the alarm system in this city because reports were made from several sections that the alarm was not heard at 12:25. Other places, much farther away, reported that the alarm was heard clearly.

WIDELY KNOWN HORSEMAN DIES

William Backenstoe Passes Away Here Early Tuesday

William Backenstoe, 75, formerly widely known horseman of this city, died Tuesday at 6 A. M. at the Leath Rest Home on North North Street where he had been a patient for several days.

For several years Mr. Backenstoe had been a clerk at the Arlington Hotel, and prior to that was in the grocery business here as well as having a stable of race horses.

He trained and drove his own horses and was known among horsemen as one of the best authorities on horses in the country.

He trained and drove his own County practically all of his life, although for several years he was in the grocery business and later the livery business in Mt. Sterling.

During the years he handled race horses he owned a number of exceptionally good animals.

He took part in a great many races.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:30 P. M. at the Kiever Funeral Home, and burial made in the Washington C. H. Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

OFFICERS NAMED BY FAIR BOARD

Plans for Next Year's Event Already Being Outlined

There will be a Fayette County Fair again next summer—unless it might interfere with the country's war effort—and, to this end, the board not only elected officers for the coming year but discussed some broad plans for staging next year's agricultural and entertainment extravaganza at its regular monthly meeting Monday night.

Ray Brandenburg was the unanimous choice of his fellow board members for president, a post he has held for the past several years.

Only two changes were made in the officers. Frank E. Ellis was formally elected secretary, as had been expected, to take over the duties which have been handled by George L. Gossard ever since the revival of the Fair more than six years ago. Gossard resigned as secretary last fall but it did not become effective until this, the regular annual reorganization meeting was held. At that time Ellis was endorsed for the job and, during the interim, made preparation to take over the work.

George A. Steen, who has been the treasurer since the rejuvenation of the institution, stepped out this year and nominated T. H. Craig, Jr., as his successor. His unanimous election followed.

Walter Sollars was reelected vice president as a routine matter.

Very few changes in the make-up of the several committees delegated to handle the many-sided arrangements for the Fair are expected to be made, because the committee-men, through the experience of the past several years, are familiar with their activities and are considered best qualified for their special assignments.

Bucks All Set To Lift Lid of Court Season

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Gene Quackenbush at center, Ohio State University pops the lid off its basketball season tonight with two sophomores in the line-up against a veteran Ohio Wesleyan University quintet in Columbus Auditorium.

Two other Ohio cage teams started off the week last night. Bowling Green University ambushed the Camp Perry Soldiers outfit, 73 to 22. In the other clash, Akron took a 64-53 pasting from Niagara University at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The Ohio State-Ohio Wesleyan clash will be the opener for both teams. Buck Coach Harold G. Olsen said he would start sophomores Gene Fekete and Dick Shrider as guards. Capt. Freddie Miller and Bud Wise will be at the forwards, with Bob Shaw at center.

Wesleyan Coach Lars Wagner has not named his starters, but they are expected to be Capt. Bob Kuskisson and Mahlon Hamilton, forwards, and Bob Brentlinger and Tommy Scott, guards.

Black Book Report On Fayette County

CONDITION OF COUNTY'S GENERAL FUND

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Ohio Chamber of Commerce, research department, has made a comprehensive survey of the conduct of official business and financial affairs of Fayette County and presented it at a public meeting in the form of "black book" report. The investigations were made by William R. Evans of the Chamber's research department. Included in the report are comparisons with other counties of similar size. The report is being presented to the readers of the Record-Herald day by day and department by department in the hope that it will give the residents and taxpayers a better understanding of how the business of their county is being conducted and, thus, stimulate their interest in better and more efficient government. The report is marked by commendation for the county's officials, but it also contains suggestions and recommendations for further improvement. The report will be published as it is presented and without comment.)

The general fund should be of primary interest to the taxpayers, since this fund receives most of its income from the taxes assessed against real, public utility and personal property. Economies in operation of county government, as well as any excessive spending, will be directly reflected in the amount of taxes necessary to collect against property. This report will be primarily concerned with the transactions of this fund.

The county began the year 1939 with a cash balance of $9,364.67. Receipts to the fund during that year totaled $130,732.64, with expenditures in the amount of $138,201.53, resulting in a reduction in the balance at the close of the year to $1,895.48. Receipts during 1940 totaled $138,780.94 with expenditures of $140,624.20, resulting in further reduction of the balance to an amount of $52.22, with which to begin the year 1941. During 1941, receipts totaled $138,423.77 with disbursements of $138,435.71, leaving a balance of $40.28 at the beginning of the year 1942. Estimated revenue for the year 1942 amounts to $140,000, with appropriations totaling $138,988.13, which will result in an estimated balance at the close of the year 1942 in an amount of $1,052.15.

On the basis of the present tax collections, which are running approximately 103 percent, and from the increase in the sales of farm products of the County Farm and Children's Home, it is now estimated that this anticipated balance will be approximately $9,000 at the close of the year 1942.

It is interesting to note that the county retained no revenue from the sales tax in the year 1939. The county budget commission did not allocate any portion of this revenue to the county government but made distribution on the basis of need to all subdivisions of the county. In 1940 and 1941, however, the county's share of the sales tax revenue amounted to $8,062.96 and $7,500, respectively. It is estimated that the county's share of the sales tax revenue in 1942 will be approximately $10,000.

The allocation to the subdivisions of the sales tax revenue, received by the county from the state, is under the authority of the County Budget Commission per Section 5546-19, G. C. The Fayette County Commission must be commended in allocating this revenue strictly on the basis of need.

County officials are also to be commended for operating on a balanced budget each year and with no deficit financing. It must be noted, however, that expenditures each year have exceeded income, resulting in a reduction in the balance of $9,364.67 at the close of the year 1938 to only $40.28 with which to begin the year 1942. The county has, therefore, not been living within its income.

This fact should be considered in making the 1943 budget, as well as the fact that revenue to the clerk of courts' office will, no doubt, also diminish, due to a drop in motor vehicle registration.

New and Tough League Of Ohio Colleges Looms

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Don't be surprised if Bowling Green State University's resignation from the Ohio Conference results in the formation, as soon as the war clouds roll away, of a new and plenty tough athletic loop composed of Buckeye schools. The Falcons, unable to schedule a representative slate of league opponents, quit the 40-year-old loop Saturday night. The Bees played only three conference games in football last fall, and had only one conference tilt scheduled for next year.

Twelve of the 22 games on this winter's basketball slate were against conference foes, but at least one athletic director plans to cancel the date following the Falcon resignation.

W. Harold Anderson, acting director at Bowling Green, said a dozen conference schools had declined to play the Falcons in football next year, many of them declaring "you are out of our class."

"There's no use belonging to a conference if you can't get any games," Anderson said. "The conference regulations declare that in making up the schedules for the various sports, the managers are to give preference to other conference colleges, but it appears the members don't care to live up to that.

"Although the conference recognizes no champion in football or basketball, you can bet the coaches are the first ones to grab the Monday morning newspapers to look at the standings. I've been told that we could schedule more conference teams if we were not a member of the league."

Back in 1934 Hiram withdrew from the conference so it could use freshmen on its athletic teams—a privilege granted all loop schools for the war's duration. Dayton and Xavier also quit that year to become members of the now defunct Buckeye League. In 1928 Denison, Wittenberg, Cincinnati, Miami, Ohio University and Ohio Wesleyan resigned from the Ohio to form the Buckeye, but Denison came back in 1933 and Wittenberg in 1934. In 1937 Akron was expelled for alleged use of ineligible players, despite a strenuous defense by Dean F. E. Ayer of Akron, who had served as president of the loop from 1931 to 1933.

There's a good chance that a new conference might be formed by the four state universities, Bowling Green, Kent State, Ohio University and Miami, along with a couple of others selected from such non-league schools as Akron, Dayton, Ohio Wesleyan and Western Reserve. Toledo, too, might be interested. Only Kent State and Toledo of that group are members of the Ohio League, and Toledo plays few conference opponents.

Coach in Navy

Ray Flaherty, above, head coach of the Washington Redskins of the National pro football league since 1937, has been sworn into the United States Naval Reserves. He is expected to go on active service after the Redskins' championship playoff game with the Chicago Bears in Washington, Dec. 13.

Warnerites And Bakers Win Matches

The Warnerites held their place at the top of the Industrial League but they had to turn on everything they had to take two out of three from the Cleo Colas in their match on the Main Street alleys Monday night.

It was one of the most hotly contested battles of the season to date and the Warnerites held only a slight edge in the 2638 to 2608 total scores when the smoke had cleared away. Both teams started out with a splattering of the ducks and although neither could keep up the pace in the last two games, which were won by the Warnerites, the let-down was not very great.

The lowly celler-dwelling Pennington Bakers got tough in their match with the Pure Pointers and won two games before they could be stopped. And, at that, it took a 915 in the final game to do it.

High individual scores were plentiful among all four teams. Reisinger of the Bakers, however, was the big gun of the evening with a 244 in the first tilt.

SPORTS for Victory

By EARL RUBY, Sports Editor, Louisville Courier-Journal

The story behind an astonishing vigorous and successful War Bond sales drive by members of a nearby county club:

Three members of a quite famous old golfing foursome were seated in the locker room. They had just completed their usual Saturday round, their twelfth since the Army had taken their fourth member.

"War Bond rally tonight at the club," remarked No. 1 as he pulled on a sock. "You two going?"

"Don't think so," said No. 2. "Wife's planned a ride out to the country. I can't afford to draw any money out of the business for bonds now anyway."

No. 3 placed his highball on the floor while he pulled on his pants. Completing the operation, he said, "What would I be doing at a War Bond rally? My car business shot and me trying to find some other means of keeping the family from falling apart."

No. 1 rubbed a bunion reflectively. "Don't know but what we'd all be better off with a commission like Ed. It looked foolish at first, but there he is now, a morale officer, teaching soldiers how to play golf and softball in sunny Ireland. His wife's running his business for him, and he hasn't got a worry."

A Negro porter ambled through the aisle, stepping around stools, towels, and emptied glasses. "Heah is a post cahd done cum fo you gemmen," he grinned.

No. 1 took a quick glance and cried, "Hot dog; it's from Ed! A post card from our lieutenant, the old rascal. He finally decided to write! Look—a picture of a golf course on the front. 'Kilkeel Golf Course, Northern Ireland,' he read. 'By golly that course is flatter'n No. 15 fairway.' No. 2 and No. 3 yelled for him to read what Ed had to say.

"Dear Joe," he read, "This country this time of year is a golfer's paradise.

No. 2 whooped, "Same old Ed! Takes more than a war to stop his golf."

Joe resumed:

"... You can play from 5:30 A. M. until 11:30 P. M. . . ."

"And I'll bet he's there when they open and still there when they close," No. 3 laughed.

"... But have not played since I've been here. Lost left arm in air raid first week. And you birds know golf's no good without a good left."

There was a stunned silence. Joe took a deep breath and continued:

"P. S.—Guess they'll ship me home soon. No good here any more. But I promise to help you men sell War Bonds. Least I can do for these kids over here."

Sensational Fielding Blamed for Slump in A.A. Batting Average

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(AP)—Record breaking fielding was the big reason 1942 batting averages in the American Association were the lowest in more than 20 years.

Three new fielding marks were established and four others were equalled, it was disclosed in the official averages released today.

Toledo figured in all the record breaking. The Mudhens' team percentage of .978, resulting from a new all time low in errors, 128, exceeded St. Paul's .976 set in 1932. Their errors were 18 under the mark of 146 recorded by Kansas City in 1940 and tied by Kansas City again this year.

Toledo's shortstop, Mark Christian, accounted for the other record. He wound up with a season's fielding average of .972, aided by a streak from May 21 to June 12 in which he played errorless ball in 25 games. The old mark of .966 set by Shannon of Louisville in 1925, also was bettered this year by Milwaukee of Kansas City, who had .968 to finish second to Christian.

Rookie Frank Drews of St. Paul led all second basemen with a fielding mark of .981, which tied the league figure set by Connally of Indianapolis in 1928 and equalled by Andy Cohen of Minneapolis in 1933.

DAR December Meeting Held On Monday

The December meeting of the American Revolution presented a program of outstanding interest on Monday afternoon, with a large attendance of Daughters assembled.

Mrs. Frank Michael, regent, conducted the opening meeting, during which she told of the DAR work on making Buddy Bags for the Red Cross. The ladies have already made several hundreds of them, and have six hundred more to be made. A ten dollar donation was decided upon, to fill the bags for the soldiers.

Mrs. Harry Rankin read a small article on William Tyler Paige, author of the American Creed, in tribute to this deceased patriotic figure.

A paper which held the complete interest and attention, was carefully and well given by Mrs. Amanda S. Paxson, on Pearl Harbor. She also spoke briefly of the newly organized Militant Mothers and Wives.

Mr. Maynard Craig in his clever and genuine appeal, told the Daughters of the conserving of home products, for the Conservation program. His amusing and humorous ability, combined to make it a very interesting discussion.

It was announced that the Mobile Blood Unit, which the D. A. R. had purchased in the spring, will be in this city in the near future, with any donor between the ages of 18 and 60 appreciated.

Bringing the afternoon's program to a close was the reading of a story from the DAR Magazine, "A Listening Post," by Mrs. Edgar Snyder.

The hostesses were Mrs. Ada M. Lanum, Mrs. Frank Rothrock, Miss Corda McCafferty, Miss Ella B. Wills, Mrs. Walter Craig, Mrs. Laura Julian, Mrs. Joseph Harper, Miss Fannie Browning, Mrs. Edgar Snyder and Mrs. A. B. Clifton.

Former Resident Is Married in Springfield

On the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bachert, Bird rd., Springfield, their daughter, Miss Helen Bachert, became the bride of Martin Wendell Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsey of Roseland, E. in the First Lutheran Church, Springfield, at 3:30 P. M. Saturday. The Rev. John Rilling read the ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, entered the church on the arm of her father. Two large standard baskets of white chrysanthemums were placed on both sides of the altar and these were flanked on either side by lighted candelabra. Robert Young, of Cleveland, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride wore a white wool, street-length frock, green accessories and an orchid corsage. Her only jewelry was a zircon pendant, a gift from the bridegroom.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Robert Knauss, organist, and Paul Mattes, vocalist. Mr. Knauss played "Ave Maria," "Liebestraum" and "The Wedding Song." Mr. Mattes sang "To a Wild Rose." Vocal selections included "All For You," "Because" and "O Promise Me."

A reception was held for immediate families and close friends in the home of the bride's parents after the wedding. A four tiered wedding cake formed the table centerpiece and this was flanked on either side by two, three-branched candelabra.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey were graduated from Wittenberg College. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and he is associated with Beta Theta Pi Fraternity. Mrs. Ramsey has served as a dietitian at the Salem City Hospital, Salem, O. Since Mr. Ramsey was graduated from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration he has been associated with The Standard Oil Co. of Ohio in Cleveland.

Forest Chapter Installs New Officers Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allemang opened their attractive country home on the Columbus Road, Monday evening, for the installation of new officers of Forest Chapter of OES, and combined it with a most delightful social hour as an aftermath.

Lighted Christmas bells burned in the windows of the home, giving a cheery welcome to the arriving guests, who numbered thirty.

Yuletide appointments were featured throughout the entire home, with cedar effectively arranged. A white Christmas tree centered the dining room table, and was brilliantly decorated.

Following the impressive ritual service, a tempting lunch was served to the guests, with a most delicious menu enjoyed.

Gay sociability until a late hour, brought a pleasurable evening to a close.

According to the ruling governing our profession, issued by the Office of Defense Transportation, it is necessary that we discontinue the delivery of chairs except for funeral purposes.

Annual Christmas Supper Given by Mrs. Hopkins

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins extended delightful hospitalities to fifty-five members of the M.H.G. Class of the First Presbyterian Sunday School, Monday evening, for the annual Christmas dinner and election of officers. The women were seated comfortably in the beautiful decorated dining room, where the class flower and colors were effectively carried out in a centerpiece of red carnations.

Mrs. Hopkins served a particularly delicious two-course dinner and congenial gaiety marking the dinner hour was prolonged.

When the big crowd was assembled in the living room, the meeting started off with singing led by Mrs. H. W. Melvin. There were several impromptu talks preceding the business meeting and election.

Mrs. Ruah Harlow, the class president, had charge of the meeting, and accepted the presidency for the next year. Her cabinet includes Mrs. John Steele, vice-president, Mrs. Ilo Mark, secretary, Miss Etta McHenry, assistant-secretary, Miss Jane Jefferson, treasurer and Mrs. L. L. Pumphrey, assistant-treasurer.

Three former members were welcomed by everyone, Mrs. Ronald Swank, of South Bend, Indiana, Mrs. W. J. Baurach, of Columbus, and Mrs. Maude Howland, of Bloomington.

Informal visiting was enjoyed in the handsome home, where carnations of vivid red added a cheery note to the lovely atmosphere.

Party for Young Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bethards, of the New Martinsburg Road, entertained with a dinner Sunday, complimenting their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bethards (Louise Little).

A handsomely appointed dining table, seated the guests, and was centered with a large cake, beautifully decorated. The place cards were pretty favors, of colorful Christmas trees. The dinner was of particularly delicious viands, and the hour around the table, exceptionally gay.

The popular young couple received many lovely gifts, for which they made happy response.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hoppes, Mr. Floyd Hoppes, Miss Lula Artis, Miss Mayme Wood of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. John Hahn, and Mrs. Robert Gordon and daughter, Nancy Belle, of Austin.

Messiah Cantata

The annual presentation of the Christmas cantata "The Messiah" will be presented on next Sunday evening in Grace Methodist Church.

Sixty-five voices from the combined choirs of the churches of the city will again present this beautiful musical story.

Mr. Ralph Lloyd, director, has secured and placed exceptional talent in making this to equal any of the past presentations, and has had the cooperation of Miss Marian Christopher, who will again be organist.

Militant Mothers and Wives

Eighteen members of the Militant Mothers and Wives, newly organized patriotic group, met in the Paxson Building Monday evening for a most enthusiastic meeting.

Mrs. W. S. Paxson, the president, had charge of the business meeting, during which time reports of petitions from several newly formed clubs, were read. Among these was the New Holland group.

Rotary Board

Mr. A. H. Newbrey brought together members of the Rotary Board for an enjoyable evening, Monday, inviting them to the Devins Party Home for a steak dinner.

The gentlemen were seated at one large table, handsomely appointed. The dinner consisted of everything that goes with such a menu, and was greatly enjoyed.

A business meeting was conducted after the dinner hour, with many issues taken into consideration.

The guests included President Fred Rost, Dr. W. H. Limes, Mr. Carroll Halliday, Mr. Marilyn Riley, Mr. W. J. Hilty and Mr. Glenn Woodmansee.

Marguerites Hold December Christmas Party

As is her annual custom, Mrs. Marguerite Powell again complimented her Sunday School class of the First Presbyterian Church, the Marguerites, with a lovely Christmas party on Monday evening.

The dining room of the church was attractively decorated for the joyous affair, with one large vase of tallismen rose buds, and another holding a dozen immense yellow chrysanthemums, greatly admired. Thirty-five young ladies were present to enjoy the anticipated event, that has always been one of the outstanding parties of the class calendar.

One long table was covered with a snowy white linen cloth, and seated the guests for the dessert course at half past seven o'clock. From a center of a graceful arrangement of cedar and large pine cones, two tall silver tallow Christmas trees burned and flanking this were small red tree candles. At each end of the table was a smaller amount of cedar centered with a single red tree, and between the centerpiece and this, stood a red tallow Santa Claus, in a bed of greenery. Each cover was marked by miniature tallow snowmen, Christmas angels and choir boys, favors of the evening.

Flanking the long table on one side, was a smaller table, covered with a long cloth, and burning silver three-branch candelabra on either end. In the center of this was a long mirror, covered most artistically with tallismen roses, tied with matching ribbon. The dessert course was most delicious, with nuts and candies adding colorful notes and delights.

Immediately following the exceptionally gay hour, Mrs. Charles Reinke, president of the class, presented to Mrs. Powell, a lovely brooch and matching earrings of rhinestones. Mrs. Powell made graceful response and then gave to each of the past presidents of the class, a dainty corsage from the centerpiece of the smaller table, each holding three tallismen roses.

Impromptu talks were made by each of the receivers, who told of some interesting occurrence during their term of office, and which caused unusual gaiety and mirth.

Plans were made for the program at the church on Christmas Eve, with the president appointing different committees to take charge of this.

The ladies lingered until a late hour, voicing their sincere appreciation for such a lovely affair.

SON OF EX-KAISER DIES

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts), Dec. 8.—(P)—Prince Eitel Friedrich Hohenzollern, second son of the late ex-Kaiser Wilhelm, died last night at Potsdam following a stroke. He was 59 years old.

chairman by acclamation late yesterday to succeed Rep. Joseph W. Martin, of Mass., who resigned to devote all his time to his duties as leader of an enlarged House minority.

The Cedar Rapids attorney who has been a member of the committee for ten years, emerged as a compromise choice to break a two-ballot deadlock between Werner W. Schroeder, Chicago attorney and Illinois committee member, opposed by the Wendell L. Willkie forces on isolationist grounds, and Frederick E. Baker, a young Seattle business man.

Schroeder and Baker withdrew and proposed Spangler's election in the interest of harmony.

The Willkie forces stopped Schroeder as they had set out to do, but could not claim Spangler as their man, nor could any other presidential possibility.

As a further move to keep the party on an even keel as it plans for 1944 under the impetus of the recent election gains, the committee before adjourning adopted a resolution advocating that the United States owed it to the world to help other nations in making the next peace last.

Senator Taft of Ohio, who has renounced any presidential ambitions for himself in 1944 and came out for Gov. John W. Bricker of his home state, was a Schroeder backer, but he nevertheless offered the post-war co-operation resolution.

Spangler at his first press conference last night said he was in agreement with the party declarations on a post-war collaboration policy and added:

"We all know we have a certain responsibility growing out of the war and it is up to us to carry our share of the load."

In accepting the chairmanship, Spangler told the committee he interpreted it not as a personal victory but as part of the effort to "defeat the new deal."

ONE FOR BRICKER

COLUMBUS, Dec. 8.—(P)—Election of Mrs. Katharine Kennedy Brown of Dayton to the executive committee of the Republican National Committee at its St. Louis meeting was interpreted today by Ohio party spokesmen as favorable to Gov. John W. Bricker's 1944 presidential possibilities.

The executive committee selects officers of the national convention and usually picks the convention city and takes other pre-convention steps regarded as influential in naming the party's presidential nominee, Mrs. Brown succeeded David S. Ingalls of Cleveland on the executive body. Ingalls, now on duty with the Navy, remains on the national committee.

Ohio party spokesmen expressed satisfaction over Spangler's selection.

U. S. Senator Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati exercised Ingalls' proxy at the national committee meeting. Taft recently removed his name from the list of 1944 presidential possibilities by announcing his support for Bricker.

Allied navies a valuable base for guarding the sea supply lanes to the African front, and a shorter route from flying bombers to the battle zone.

Military Expediency
The United States government has taken the attitude that Eisenhower's agreement with Darlan was military expediency. Some leaders of Gen. Charles De Gaulle's Fighting French have objected to collaboration with the admiral.

In Libya, aerial activity increased, indicating perhaps that the British Eighth Army soon would open an offensive against the El Agheila line on the road to Tripoli from the east.

El Agheila Blasted
Fighter bombers attacked Nazi gun positions northeast of the El Agheila line and strafed the coastal supply road along the Gulf of Sirte. Other Allied planes raided Bizerte and La Goulette, by night, and followed up with daylight attacks on the harbor at Sfax and German rail lines in Tunisia.

In Tunisia, too, Allied planes were reported taking an increasing part in the battle as they slowly overcame their earlier handicap of lack of advanced bases.

Winter Aids Russians
On the Russian front hard-pressed German forces were reported taking advantage of recent heavy snow in the Stalingrad area to strengthen their defensive positions along the escape corridor west of the city.

Bitter fighting continued in the Stalingrad factory area which the Russians are trying to clear of invaders.

The Berlin communiques acknowledged that the Red army still was pressing its attack in the Don River bend with powerful tank forces, but said the German line was holding.

In the southwest Pacific, Allied airmen had destroyed 21 planes today in offensive and defensive flights ranging from northeast New Guinea to New Britain and New Ireland, across almost 500 miles of ocean.

The biggest bag was on New Guinea where the Japanese sent 18 medium bombers, eight dive bombers and 12 Zero fighters over Allied lines which have pocketed the invaders on the beaches at Buna and Gona. With little losses, the Allied fighters downed six medium bombers, five dive bombers and seven Zeros.

Two Japanese planes were destroyed on their runways in a raid on Lae, farther north on the New Guinea coast, and one fighter-plane was shot down over Gasmata, New Britain.

Wharves and storage dumps were set afire in a raid on Kavieng Harbor, New Ireland.

There were no new reports of the ground fighting along the Buna-Gona beach, or on Guadalcanal.

An Associated Press correspondent reported in a delayed dispatch from Guadalcanal that Col. John M. Arthur, Marines commander, said the Americans had been averaging 50 to 1 over the Japanese in fatalities despite the fact that the Americans were pitted against Japanese veterans of Burma, Malaya, Sumatra and the Philippines.

"We are beating them," he said "at their own game."

Danger of a Japanese drive into Yunnan province to complete China's isolation from India's supply bases was emphasized again by a Chungking Chinese army spokesman who also declared that the Japanese were building two naval bases in Chekiang province on the China coast, augmenting the harbor installations of Hsiangshang and Sammen bays.

These, he said, were "principally for defensive action against naval attacks by the Allies."

The spokesman estimated the Japanese air force at between 700 and 800 planes in Indo China, Burma, Thailand and Malaya.

war production schedules and crop goals.

"The total population of the nation is now considered as a national pool from which the needs of the armed forces, industry, agriculture and essential civilian activities will be supplied."

In supplying those needs, McNutt said, draft boards now being integrated into the War Manpower Commission will give essential industries and agriculture equal rather than secondary consideration to the armed forces' demands.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, he added, will continue in his post of draft director.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(P)—Interest in the grain markets lagged today and prices slumped. Selling was moderate and traders said the decline reflected lack of buying orders more than any pressure to liquidate. Rye paced the downturn.

The market opened about steady, and wheat and corn showed minor fractional gains during the first two hours, but the absence of any favorable news tempered bullish enthusiasm. Pressure on rye, which had risen in recent sessions, apparently was based on less optimistic war news.

Wheat closed 1/4c lower to 1/4c higher, December 1.27 1/2-1/2, May 1.30 1/2; corn was off 1/4-1/2c, December 86 1/2-1/2c; oats finished unchanged to 1/4c higher; soybeans gained 1/4c and rye dropped 1/2-1/4c.

BROTHERS FROM FAYETTE COUNTY MEET ON FRONT IN AFRICA (UNEXPECTEDLY)

his sister said, was: "Well, Don, what have you heard from home?"

There wasn't much time for a reunion on that African battlefield, Don admits. But, he did manage to learn that Bill's ship (he did not give the name) had been either torpedoed or bombed (he is not specific) before the greatest convoy in history reached its destination. (The Navy Department has issued a communique saying five transports and several warships were lost in attacks by Axis submarines and dive bombers off the African coast.) Bill, however, was picked up by another ship in the convoy and took part in the landing operations and subsequent occupation battles.

Although the Cox brothers were in the thick of the fighting, neither was wounded. They both are proudly wearing service stripes, however.

FRANCO CASTS SPAIN'S LOT WITH AXIS IN STRUGGLE AGAINST IMPERIALISM

of Spanish youth who are full of ideals guarantees this continuity of our movement.

"Our task is great. When the war ends the old Europe will be dead—with its capitalism, imperialism, plutocracy."

The Spanish radio said government officials and diplomats, including the German ambassador, assembled to hear Franco, whose speech had been advertised beforehand as one which would "settle the problem of Spain's international policy."

MADRID, Dec. 8.—(P)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco said today that his regime had not shut the door to return of the monarchy in Spain but that a restoration must be conditional upon "continuation of the national revolution" and that "the regime exists for Spain, not Spain for the regime."

The only international question, Franco said, was totalitarianism or totalitarianism. Fascism or a regime on the Fascist pattern.

of sunken ships were usually given such furloughs when they were brought back home.

Mrs. Smith said: "Nobody will ever know what a relief it was to all of us when Don walked in. We had not heard from either one of the boys for more than three months." She added with a high-pitched laugh of excitement that "we certainly were worried about them."

There was an unmistakable note of pride in her voice as she told of the experiences of her two younger brothers.

The Cox brothers enlisted in the navy the latter part of last May. Neither had ever seen an ocean, much less ever been on a warship. Theirs had been a more or less carefree life like that of any American farm boy. They knew about corn and wheat, cattle and hogs and thoughts of the sea never entered their minds until their country became embroiled in a war. Then they left their home on the W. M. Campbell farm and enlisted to do their part.

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(P)—The stock market did better on balance today as the decline in rails was stemmed and bidding came in for assorted leaders elsewhere.

Tax adjustments were unimpressive and sentiment was bolstered to some extent by opinions that the reaction generally may have gone too far. A certain amount of buying also was based on expectations of the usual year-end rally.

treachery and deprived of her powers of evil."

Churchill told Commons this morning that he did not think "there was the slightest truth" in the suggestion of Aneurin Bevan, Laborite, that if a Supreme Council of United Nations had existed "some unfortunate incidents in North Africa might have been avoided."

Bevan apparently was referring to the situation created by the fact that the United States forces in Africa made a deal with Admiral Darlan while Great Britain had certain unspecified commitments to General De Gaulle, of the fighting French and Russia reportedly expressed disapproval.

Neither Churchill nor Bevan, however, clarified this point.

FARM BUREAU PRESIDENT HITS FARM SUBSIDY CUT AS CURB ON INFLATION

dies at another Chicago farm meeting. Wickard said he looked upon subsidies first as a means of increasing production and secondly as an anti-inflation control to keep down the price of food.

O'Neal recommended today that the basic work week in the United States be stepped up from 40 to 54 hours a week for the duration of the war, and that conscription of labor should be resorted to only as a last resort.

"Farmers are perfectly willing and glad to work 70 to 80 hours a week to produce the additional food and fibre needed..." he said. "They believe other groups should do likewise in order to prevent inflation in this critical emergency."
